Bobby:

We're not authorized to accept service. However, we are willing to meet and confer in the interim. When might you be available next week?

David,

Thanks for sending these along, as well as the others you filed. We were surprised to see these motions given that we believed we were still in a meet and confer process.

We had a couple of questions in response to these motions. First, are you able to accept service of the subpoenas that you assert were not served properly? We assume that your clients are not evading service and it seems clear you are all in receipt of the subpoenas.

Second, are you and/or Jonathan still willing to meet and confer regarding these subpoenas in the interim?

Please let us know. Thanks.

Bobby
